1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Board Charter sets out the Board's strategic intent and outlines the roles and powers that the Board specifically reserves for itself, and those which it delegates to Management and in so doing, also sets the tone of the various Board Committees.
- 1.2 This Board Charter is subject to the provisions of the Companies Act 2016 ("Companies Act"), the Constitution of Sime Darby Plantation Berhad ("SD Plantation" or "Company"), the Main Market Listing Requirements ("MMLR") of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad ("Bursa"), the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance 2021 ("MCCG") and any other applicable law or regulatory requirements.

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1 The role of the Board is to promote and protect the interests of the SD Plantation Group ("Group") (i.e. the shareholders and stakeholders of each member of the Group). The Board shoulders the ultimate responsibility of determining the direction of the Group, thereby ensuring the long term success of the Group and the delivery of sustainable value to its stakeholders. The Board provides thought leadership and advice in fine-tuning corporate strategies, championing good governance and ethical practices, and ensures the effective execution of these strategies.
- 2.2 The governance structure of the Board is as follows:

3. BOARD STRUCTURE AND COMPOSITION

- 3.1 The Constitution of SD Plantation provides for a minimum of two (2) Directors and a maximum of fifteen (15) Directors. At any one time, at least two (2) or half of the Board members, whichever is higher, shall be Independent Non-Executive Directors.
- 3.2 The tenure of an Independent Non-Executive Director shall be limited to nine (9) years without further extension.
- 3.3 Members of the Board should possess the relevant knowledge, skills, competencies, functional and management experience, characteristics and mind-set to contribute effectively to the Board. The Board shall also regularly review its membership to ensure the Board remains relevant and should formalise its succession planning practices.
- 3.4 Directors may relinquish their membership on the Board with prior written notice to the Group Secretary, subject to compliance with the provisions of the Companies Act, MMLR and the Company's Constitution.
- 3.5 The Board, through the Nomination & Remuneration Committee, is responsible for the implementation of the Board Composition Policy and Fit & Proper Policy towards the achievement of the Board's objectives.

4. APPOINTMENT, RETIREMENT AND ELECTION

4.1 Appointment

New appointments as Directors of SD Plantation are made based on the selection criteria which may include:

- (i) Required skills, knowledge, expertise and experience;

- Review, challenge and decide on Management's proposals for the Group and monitor its implementation by Management; and
- Monitor compliance with established policies and procedures.

6.1.4 Identifying principal risks and ensuring the implementation of appropriate internal controls and mitigation measures

- Understand the principal risks of the Group business and recognise that business decisions involve the taking of appropriate risks;
- Fulfil statutory and fiduciary responsibilities by monitoring the operational, financial and risk management processes of the Group and ensuring that internal control procedures are in place;

- Set the risk appetite within which the Board expects Management to operate and ensure that there is a sound risk management framework to identify, analyse, evaluate, manage and monitor significant financial and non-financial risks; and
  - Comply with environment, safety and health legislation by understanding the operations being carried out by employees and the hazards and risks associated with such operations.

6.1.5 Succession Planning

- Ensure Senior Management has the necessary skills and experience; and
- Ensure measures are in place to provide for orderly succession planning, including appointing, training, fixing the compensation of and, where appropriate, replacing Senior Management.

6.1.6 Overseeing the development and implementation of a stakeholder communications policy for the Group

- Ensure that the Group has in place a policy to enable effective communication with its stakeholders. This policy should include how feedback received from its stakeholders is considered by the Group when making business and other decisions.

6.1.7 Reviewing the adequacy and the integrity of the management information and internal control systems of the Group

- Ensure that there is a sound framework of reporting on internal controls and regulatory compliance;
- Review the efficiency and quality of the Group's financial reporting process and systems of accounting and internal controls; and
- Ensure the integrity of the Group's financial and non-financial reporting.

6.2 Role of the Board Chairman

The Board Chairman presides over meetings of Directors and is responsible for instilling good corporate governance practices, leadership and the effectiveness of the Board. The Chairman of the Board shall not be a Chairman or member of the Board Committees.

The duties of the Board Chairman include the following:

6.2.1 Managing Board meetings to ensure robust decision-making by:

- setting the agenda for each Board meeting together with the Group Secretary and the Group Managing Director (“GMD”). Other Directors and key members of Management may also be consulted;
- ensuring the provision of accurate, complete, timely and clear information to the Directors;
- leading Board meetings and discussions;
- managing Boardroom dynamics by promoting a culture of openness and debate; encouraging active participation and allowing dissenting views to be freely expressed; and
- ensuring all Directors are properly briefed on issues arising at Board meetings in a timely manner.

6.2.2 Building a high performance Board by:

- providing leadership for the Board so that the Board can perform its responsibilities effectively;
- taking a leading role in adoption and implementation of an effective corporate governance system and practices, including Board and Committee Charters, a Committee structure and ensuring that induction as well as ongoing education programmes for Directors are in place;
- arranging the regular evaluation of the performance of the Board, its Committees and individual Directors and discussing the performance assessment with individual Directors and Committee Chairmen;
- ensuring that prior to new appointments to the Board, an assessment is undertaken on the candidate, which may include a competency and behavioral analysis of the candidate and seeking third party feedback on the candidate; and

- ensuring that the Board and senior executive succession planning is considered on an ongoing basis.

6.2.3 Managing Board/Management interface by:

- acting as the conduit between Management and the Board, although all Directors shall have the opportunity to get to know key members of the Management team;
- developing a positive relationship with the GMD, acting as a confidant and advisor; and
- facilitating the selection and appointment of a successor to the current GMD.

6.2.4 Being the public face by:

- acting as a spokesperson for the Board; and
- representing SD Plantation at shareholders' meetings and on other occasions when actions are taken or statements are made in the name of the Group, both domestically and/or abroad.

6.2.5 Ensuring appropriate steps are taken to provide effective communication with stakeholders and that their views are communicated to the Board as a whole.

6.3 Role of Individual Directors

6.3.1 Directors are expected to comply with their legal, statutory and equitable duties and obligations when discharging their fiduciary responsibilities as Directors. Broadly these include:

- acting in good faith and in the best interests of the Group;
- demonstrating good stewardship and acting in a professional manner with sound mind;
- acting with reasonable care, skill and diligence subject to the business judgement rule;

- avoiding conflicts of interest with the Group in a personal or professional capacity, including improper use of the property, information, opportunity of the Group or position as a Director or officer of the Group or engaging in business which is in competition with the Group;
  - ensuring Board information, discussions, deliberations and decisions that are not publicly known are not used for personal interest, or their employers' interest;
  - disclosure of and abstaining from voting on matters of material personal interest;
  - exercising greater vigilance and professional scepticism in understanding and shaping the strategic direction of the Company and/or Group; and
  - compliance with the Companies Act, securities legislation and the MMLR.
- 6.3.2 Every Director shall devote sufficient time to prepare for and attend Board and Board Committee meetings, and attend Directors' continuous training programmes and briefings.
- 6.3.3 Every Director shall discuss with the Chairman of the Company prior to his/her acceptance of any directorship on companies outside of SD Plantation Group to ensure that such appointment is not in conflict with SD Plantation Group's business or does not materially interfere with his/her performance as a Director on SD Plantation Board.
- 6.3.4 Every Director shall inform the Group Secretary in writing upon his/her appointment to the Boards of the companies outside SD Plantation Group for the Group Secretary to notify other Board members and the regulatory authorities
- 6.3.5 Every Director must attend at least fifty (50) percent of the Board meetings held in each financial year.
- 6.3.6 Every Director must keep abreast of his responsibilities as a Director and of the conduct, business activities and development of the Group.
- 6.3.7 Every Board member should ensure that the minutes of meetings accurately reflect the deliberations and decisions of the Board, including whether any Director abstained from voting or voted against a particular matter/resolution. The reasons thereof must be recorded in the minutes.

6.4 Role of the Senior Independent Non-Executive Director

6.4.1 The duties of the Senior Independent Non-Executive Director shall include acting as a sounding board for the Chairman, an intermediary for other Directors when necessary, and the point of contact for shareholders and other stakeholders with concerns which have failed to be resolved or would not be appropriate to be communicated through the normal channels of the Chairman and/or GMD.

6.5 Role of the Group Managing Director

6.5.1 The GMD assumes the overall responsibilities for the execution of the Group's strategies in line with the Board's direction, oversees the operations of the Subsidiary Companies and drives the Group's businesses and performance towards achieving the Group's vision and goals. The key roles of the GMD include, among others:

- displaying ethical behaviour while overseeing the day-to-day business operations, implementing Board policies and strategies, and making operational decisions;
- serving as the conduit between the Board and Management in ensuring the success of the Group's governance and management functions;
- ensuring that all Board decisions reflect its environment, safety and health intentions as articulated in the environment, safety and health policy statement;
- ensuring effective relationships and communication with Management, and between the Board, shareholders and relevant stakeholders;
- providing strong leadership by effectively communicating the vision, management philosophy, business strategy and environment, safety and health policy to employees; and
- keeping the Board informed of salient aspects and issues concerning the Group's operations, including those related to environment, safety and health.

7. MATTERS RESERVED

- 7.1 The matters reserved for the Board include:
- 7.1.1 Group strategy, plans and budgets;
  - 7.1.2 Acquisitions and disposals and transactions exceeding the authority limits of GMD;
  - 7.1.3 Changes to the Senior Management; and
  - 7.1.4 Changes in the key policies, procedures and delegated authority limits of the Group.

8. BOARD MEETINGS

8.1 Frequency

- 8.1.1 The Board shall meet at least five (5) times in a financial year, with additional meetings to be convened as and when necessary.

8.2 Notice and Agenda

- 8.2.1 Notices and agenda of meetings duly endorsed by the Chairman together with the relevant Board papers shall be distributed at least five (5) working days prior to the Board meetings.

8.3 Quorum

- 8.3.1 The quorum for a Board meeting shall be a minimum of four (4) Directors. In the absence of the Chairman, the members present shall elect a Chairman from amongst them to chair the meeting.

8.4 Meeting Mode

- 8.4.1 A meeting shall normally be conducted face-to-face to enable effective discussion; however, meetings may also be conducted via telephone conferencing, video conferencing or other appropriate means as determined by the Board.

8.4.2 The Board may from time to time and if deemed appropriate, consider and approve and/or recommend relevant matters via a resolution in writing, in lieu of formally convening a meeting. A written resolution in writing signed or approved by a majority of the Directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it has been passed by a meeting of the Board duly convened. Approval of the Board on the resolution can be through email and/or other means of electronic communications. Any such resolution may consist of several documents, including facsimile or other means of communications, in like form, each signed by one or more Directors.

8.5 Voting

8.5.1 All resolutions of the Board shall be adopted by a simple majority vote, each member having one vote. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman of the Board shall have a second or casting vote.

8.5.2 A Board member is required to abstain from deliberations and voting in respect of any matter which may give rise to an actual or perceived conflict of interest situation. The nature and extent of conflict of interest must be recorded in the minutes.

8.6 Meeting Minutes

8.6.1 The minutes of the meeting shall be action oriented, and record the deliberations and decisions of the Board. The minutes shall include compiled Board instructions as Matters Arising for discussion at each Board meeting to ensure proper follow through.

8.6.2 Minutes shall be distributed to Board members and shall be approved for signing by the Chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings are held or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting.

8.7 Secretary

8.7.1 The Secretary to the Board shall be the Group Secretary or a person recommended by the Group Secretary and approved by the Board.

8.7.2 The Secretary shall organise and provide assistance at Board and Board Committee meetings and have the following key responsibilities:

- draft the schedule of Board activities for the financial year;
- ensure meetings are arranged and held accordingly;
- assist the Chairman in planning the Board's activities;
- draw up meeting agendas in consultation with the Board Chairman and maintain the minutes;
- ensure structured communication channels between the Board and Board Committees;
- attend Board and Board Committee meetings and ensure the proceedings of meetings are recorded and the minutes circulated in a timely manner;
- ensure the presence of a quorum at the meeting; and
- ensure Board Committees' recommendations presented to the Board are supported by papers that explain the rationale for the Committees' recommendations.

9. BOARD REVIEW PROCESS

9.1 To remain relevant, the effectiveness of the Board, its Committees and each individual Director should be annually reviewed and disclosed in the annual report as prescribed under the MMLR and the MCCG. The Board should engage professional, experienced and independent party(ies) at least every three (3) years to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

9.2 The Board via the Nomination & Remuneration Committee shall establish a set of criteria for the assessment of all Directors including Independent Directors. In establishing these criteria, attention shall be given to the values, principles and skills required for the Group. These criteria will serve as a source of reference for prospective and incumbent Directors for the Board's annual assessment and shall be reviewed regularly to maintain their relevance.

9.3 The evaluation shall cover the performance of the Board, the various Board Committees and each individual Director.

- 9.4 The Board should disclose the method or approach of the assessment, the outcome of the evaluation, actions taken and the impact of the evaluation on the board composition (if any) in the annual report including the identity of the third party if the assessment is conducted by an independent third party.
- 9.5 The Board, in assessing a Director's independence should focus not only on whether a Director's background and current activities qualify him or her as independent but also whether the Director can act independently of Management and free from any business or other relationship which could interfere with the exercise of independent judgement or the ability to act in the best interests of the Company.

10. DIRECTORS' ORIENTATION AND CONTINUOUS EDUCATION TRAINING

10.1 Induction of Newly Appointed Directors

10.1.1 All newly appointed Board members shall undergo a formal induction and continuous education programme to ensure that they understand:

- their roles and responsibilities;
- the Board's expectations in terms of their knowledge contribution;
- the nature of the Group's business;
- current issues faced; and
- strategies adopted by the Group.

10.2 Directors' Training and Development

10.2.1 All Directors shall ensure that they keep abreast of regulatory changes, other developments and broad business trends as well as sustainability issues relevant to the Company and its business including climate-related risks and opportunities. The Board must evaluate the training needs of its Directors on a continuous basis and ensure all Directors have access to appropriate continuing education programmes.

- disclosure of interests in securities;
  - disclosure of any conflict of interest in a transaction involving the Group;
  - prohibition of dealing in securities; and
  - restrictions on disclosure of price-sensitive information.
- 14.3.4 Managing processes pertaining to the annual shareholders' meeting;
- 14.3.5 Monitoring corporate governance development and assist the Board in applying governance practices to meet the Board's needs and stakeholders' expectations; and
- 14.3.6 Serving as a focal point for stakeholders' communication and engagement on corporate governance issues.
- 14.4 The Group Secretary must keep abreast of, and inform the Board of current governance practices. The Group Secretary should undertake continuous professional development.

15. STAKEHOLDERS' COMMUNICATION

- 15.1 The Board shall ensure effective, transparent and regular communication with its stakeholders to facilitate mutual understanding of each other's objectives and expectations.

16. GENERAL MEETING

- 16.1 All Directors and the Chairs of Board Committees must attend General Meetings to allow shareholders to raise questions and receive meaningful response to questions raised by them.

17. REVIEW OF THE BOARD CHARTER

- 17.1 This Charter and the Terms of Reference of each Committee established by the Board shall be periodically reviewed and updated by the Board taking into consideration the needs of the Group as well as any development in rules and regulations that may have an impact on the discharge of the Board's duties and responsibilities.
